Part 4. International Travel Impact on Petition

If you plan to travel outside the U.S., you must notify an ISSO scholar advisor so we may determine when the petition can be submitted without jeopardizing your immigration status.

Change of Status: You should not travel outside the United States after the petition is submitted to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) until a decision has been made. A departure will invalidate the change of status.

Extension: You must be in the U.S. when the petition to extend your status is submitted to USCIS.

I certify that the information I have provided on this form is correct and that I am responsible for any errors and/or omissions. I further certify that I understand that the data submitted will be used to prepare my H-1B, O-1, E-3 or TN petition for submission to USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Service).
